ProX XSA-16SX2 LUMOSTage™ 16 Inch Acrylic Side Panels W/Velcro | Set of Two

Description

The ProX XSA-16S Acrylic side panel, for the LUMOSTage™ XSA-2X2-16, can be a replacement for broken panels or added to a module to make it complete for freestanding applications. The acrylic surface areas are translucent white which allows the riser to be used with par or wash lighting for a stand-out performance and an appearance as unique as your lighting installation.

Features

Our Lumo Stage LED platforms are able to be lit up by wired or wireless, remote controlled LED lights. When illuminated it can look like a luminous disco Saturday Night Fever, or a brilliant all white. You can have programmed lighting patterns in it as well. You are only limited by your imagination.
